CHAPTER II APPRENTICES AND THEIR TRAINING

3. Qualifications for being engaged as an apprentice

A person shall not be qualified for being engaged as an apprentice to undergo apprenticeship training in any designated trade, unless he,

- (a) ²¹[is not less than fourteen years of age, and for designated trades related to hazardous industries, not less than eighteen years of age; and"
- (b) satisfies such standards of education and physical fitness as may be prescribed:

Provided that different standards may be prescribed in relation to apprenticeship training in different designated trades ²²[and for different categories of apprentices].

3-A. Reservation of training places for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in designated trades

- (1) in every designated trade, training places shall be reserved by the employer for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes ²³[and where there is more than one designated trade in an establishment, such training places shall be reserved also on the basis of the total number of apprentices in all the designated trades in such establishment].
- (2) the number of training places to be reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes under sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed, having regard to the population of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in the State concerned.

Explanation- In this section, the expressions "Scheduled Castes" and "Scheduled Tribes" shall have the meanings as in clauses (24) and (25) of Article 366 of the Constitution].

3-B. ²⁴[Reservation of training places for other backward classes in designated trades

- (1) In every designated trade, training places shall be reserved by the employer for the Other Backward Classes and where there is more than one designated trade in an establishment, such training places shall be reserved also on the basis of the total number of apprentices in all the designated trades in such establishment.
- (2) The number of training places to be reserved for the Other Backward Classes under sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed, having regard to the population of the Other Backward Classes in the State concerned".]

4. ²⁵[Contract of apprenticeship

- (1) No person shall be engaged as an apprentice to undergo apprenticeship training in a designated trade unless such person or, if he is minor, his guardian has entered into a contract of apprenticeship with the employer.

- (2) The apprenticeship training shall be deemed to have commenced on the date on which the contract of apprenticeship has been entered into under sub-section (1).
- (3) Every contract of apprenticeship may contain such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the parties to the contract:
- Provided that no such term or condition shall be inconsistent with any provision of this Act or any rule made thereunder.
- (4) ²⁶[Every contract of apprenticeship entered into under sub-section (1) shall be sent by the employer within thirty days to the Apprenticeship Adviser until a portal-site is developed by the Central Government, and thereafter the details of contract of apprenticeship shall be entered on the portal-site within seven days, for verification and registration.
- (4A) In the case of objection in the contract of apprenticeship, the Apprenticeship Adviser shall convey the objection to the employer within fifteen days from the date of its receipt.
- (4B) The Apprenticeship Adviser shall register the contract of apprenticeship within thirty days from the date of its receipt.]
- (5) ²⁷[* * *]
- (6) Where the Central Government, after consulting the Central Apprenticeship Council, makes any rule varying the terms and conditions of apprenticeship training of any category of apprentices undergoing such training, then, the terms and conditions of every contract of apprenticeship relating to that category of apprentices and subsisting immediately before the making of such rule shall be deemed to have been modified accordingly.]

5. Novation of contracts of apprenticeship

Where an employer with whom a contract of apprenticeship has been entered into, is for any reason unable to fulfil his obligations under the contract and with the approval of the Apprenticeship Adviser it is agreed between the employer, the apprentice or his guardian and any other employer that the apprentice shall be engaged as apprentice under the other employer for the un-expired portion of the period of apprenticeship training, the agreement, on registration with the Apprenticeship Adviser, shall be deemed to be the contract of apprenticeship between the apprentice or his guardian and other employer, and on and from the date of such registration, the contract of apprenticeship with the first employer shall terminate and no obligation under the contract shall be enforceable at the instance of any party to the contract against the other party thereto.

5A. ²⁸[Regulation of optional trade

The qualification, period of apprenticeship training, holding of test, grant of certificate and other conditions relating to the apprentices in optional trade shall be such as may be prescribed.

5B. Engagement of apprentices from other States

The employer may engage apprentices from other States for the purpose of providing apprenticeship training to the apprentices].

6. Period of apprenticeship training

The period of apprenticeship training, which shall be specified in the contract of apprenticeship, shall be as follows,

- (a) In the case of ²⁹[trade apprentices] who, having undergone institutional training in a school or other institution recognised by the National Council, have passed the trade tests ³⁰[or examinations] conducted by ³¹[that Council or by an institution recognised by that Council], the period of apprenticeship training shall be such as may be ³²[prescribed] or by an institution recognised by that council];
- (aa) ³³[in the case of trade apprentices who, having undergone institutional training in a school or other institution affiliated to or recognised by a Board or State Council of Technical Education or any other authority or courses approved under any scheme which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette specify in this behalf, have passed the trade tests or examinations conducted by that Board or State Council or authority or by any other agency authorised by the Central Government, the period of apprenticeship training shall be such as may be prescribed;]
- (b) in the case of other ³⁴[trade apprentices], the period of apprenticeship training shall be such as may be prescribed;
- (c) ³⁵[in the case of graduate or technician apprentices, ³⁶[technician (vocational) apprentices] and the period of apprenticeship training shall be such as may be prescribed.]

Maharashtra Amendment

In section 6 of the Apprentices Act, 1961, in its application to the State of Maharashtra (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), for the existing clause (b), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:

- (b) ³⁷[in the case of other apprentices, the period of apprenticeship training shall be such as may be specified by the State Apprenticeship Council;]

7. Termination of apprenticeship contract

- (1) The contract of apprenticeship shall terminate on the expiry of the period of apprenticeship training.
- (2) Either party to a contract of apprenticeship may make an application to the Apprenticeship Adviser for the termination of the contract, and when such application is made, shall send by post a copy thereto to the other party to the contract.
- (3) After considering the contents of the application and the objections, if any, filed by the other party, the Apprenticeship Adviser may, by order in writing, terminate the contract, if he is satisfied that the parties to the contract or any of them have or has failed to carry out the terms and conditions of the contract and it is desirable in the interests of the parties or any of them to terminate the same:

Provided that where a contract is terminated,

- (a) For failure on the part of the employer to carry out the terms and condition of the contract, the employer shall pay to the apprentice such compensation as may be prescribed;
- (b) For such failure on the part of the apprentice, the apprentice or his guardian shall refund to the employer as cost of training such amount as may be determined by the Apprenticeship Adviser.

Maharashtra Amendment

In section 7 of the principal Act, in sub-section (3), for the existing proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:

³⁸[Provided that, where a contract is terminated,

- (a) for failure on the part of the employer to carry out the terms and conditions of the contract, the employer shall pay to the apprentice one month's stipend for which he is entitled as a compensation;
- (b) for such failure on the part of the apprentice, the apprentice or his guardian shall refund to the employer as cost of training one month's stipend for which he is entitled.]

8. ³⁹[Number of apprentices for a designated trade and optional trade

- (1) The Central Government shall prescribe the number of apprentices to be engaged by the employer for designated trade and optional trade.

Maharashtra Amendment

In section 8 of the principal Act, after the existing sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:

- (1A) ⁴⁰[Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the establishment trades for which activities are carried out in that establishment.]
- (2) Several employers may join together either themselves or through an agency, approved by the Apprenticeship Adviser, according to the guidelines issued from time to time by the Central Government in this behalf, for the purpose of providing apprenticeship training to the apprentices under them.]

9. Practical and basic training of apprentices

- (1) ⁴¹[Every employer shall make suitable arrangements in his workplace for imparting a course of practical training to every apprentice engaged by him.]
- (2) ⁴²[The Central Apprenticeship Adviser or any other person not below the rank of an Assistant Apprenticeship Adviser authorised by the State Apprenticeship Adviser in writing in this behalf] shall be given all reasonable facilities for access to each such apprentice with a view to test his work and to ensure that the practical training is being imparted in accordance with the approved programme:

Provided that ⁴³[the State Apprenticeship Adviser or any other person not below the rank of an Apprenticeship Adviser authorised by the State Apprenticeship Adviser in writing in this behalf] shall also be given such facilities in respect of apprentices undergoing training in establishments in relation to which the appropriate Government is the State Government.

- (3) ⁴⁴[Such of the trade apprentices who have not undergone institutional training in a school or other institution recognised by the National Council or any other institution affiliated to or recognised by a Board or State Council of Technical Education or any other authority which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, shall, before admission in the workplace for practical training, undergo a course of basic training and the course of basic training shall be given to the trade apprentices in any institute having adequate facilities.]
- (4) Where an employer employs in his establishment five hundred or more workers, the basic training shall be imparted to 48 ⁴⁵[the trade apprentices] either in separate parts of the workshop building or in a separate building which shall be set up by the employer himself, but the appropriate Government may grant loans to the employer on easy terms and repayable by easy instalments to meet the cost of the land, construction and equipment for such separate building.
- (5) ⁴⁶[* * * * *]
- (7) ⁴⁷[In the case of an apprentice other than a graduate or technician apprentice or technician (vocational) apprentice, the syllabus of and the equipment to be utilised for, practical training including basic training in any designated trade shall be such as may be approved by the Central Government in consultation with the Central Apprenticeship Council.]
- (7A) In the case of graduate or technician apprentices or technician (vocational) apprentices, the programme of apprenticeship training and the facilities required for such training in any designated trade shall be such as may be approved by the Central Government in consultation with the Central Apprenticeship Council.]
- (8)
- (a) Recurring costs (including the cost of stipends) incurred by an employer in connection with ⁴⁸⁴⁹[basic training], imparted to trade apprentices other than those referred to in clauses (a) and (aa)] of Section 6 shall be borne,
- (i) If such employer employs ⁵⁰[two hundred and fifty] workers or more, by the employer;
- (ii) If such employer employs less than ⁵¹[two hundred and fifty] workers, by the employer and the Government in equal shares up to such limit as may be laid down by the Central Government and beyond that limit, by the employer alone; and
- (b) recurring costs (including the cost of stipends), if any, incurred by an employer in connection with ⁵²[practical training, including basic training, imparted to trade apprentices referred to in clauses (a) and (aa)] of Section 6 shall, in every case, be borne by the employer.

- (c) [recurring costs (excluding the cost of stipends) incurred by an employer in connection with the practical training imparted to graduate or technician apprentices ⁵³[technician (vocational) apprentices] shall be borne by the employer and the cost of stipends shall be borne by the Central Government and the employer in equal shares up to such limit as may be laid down by the Central Government and beyond that limit, by the employer alone. ⁵⁴[except apprentices who holds degree or diploma in non-engineering.]

10. Related instruction of apprentices

- (1) ⁵⁵[A trade apprentice] who is undergoing practical training in an establishment shall, during the period of practical training, be given a course of related instruction (which shall be appropriate to the trade) approved by the Central Government in consultation with the Central Apprenticeship Council, with a view to giving ⁵⁶[the trade apprentice] such theoretical knowledge as he needs in order to become fully qualified as a skilled craftsman.
- (2) ⁵⁷[Related instruction shall be imparted at the cost of employer and the employer shall when so required, afford all facilities for imparting such instruction.]
- (3) Any time spend by ⁵⁸[a trade apprentice] in attending classes on related instruction shall be treated as part of his paid period of work.
- (4) ⁵⁹[In case of trade apprentices who, after having undergone a course of institutional training, have passed the trade tests conducted by the National Council or have passed the trade tests and examinations conducted by a Board or State Council of Technical Education or any other authority which the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, the related instruction may be given on such reduced or modified scale as may be prescribed.
- (5) Where any person has, during his course in technical institution, become a graduate or technician apprentice, ⁶⁰[technician (vocational) apprentice] and during his apprenticeship training he has to receive related instruction, then, the employer shall release such person from practical training to receive the related instruction in such institution, for such period as may be specified by the Central Apprenticeship Adviser or by any other person not below the rank of an Assistant Apprenticeship Adviser authorised by the Central Apprenticeship Adviser in writing in this behalf.]

11. Obligation of employers

Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Act, every employer shall have the following obligations in relation to an apprentice, namely,

- (a) to provide the apprentice with the training in his trade in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the rules made thereunder;
- (b) if the employer is not himself qualified in the trade, to ensure that a person ⁶¹[who possesses the prescribed qualifications] is placed in charge of the training of the apprentice; ⁶²[* * *]

- (bb) ⁶³[to provide adequate instructional staff, possessing such qualifications as may be prescribed, for imparting practical and theoretical training and facilities for trade test of apprentices; and]
- (c) to carry out his obligations under the contract of apprenticeship.

12. Obligations of apprentices

- (1) ⁶⁴⁶⁵[Every trade apprentice] undergoing apprenticeship training shall have the following obligations, namely:
 - (a) to learn his trade conscientiously and diligently and endeavour to qualify himself as a skilled craftsman before the expiry of the period of training;
 - (b) to attend practical and instructional classes regularly;
 - (c) to carry out all lawful orders of his employer and superiors in the establishments; and
 - (d) to carry out his obligations under the contract of apprenticeship.
- (2) ⁶⁶[Every graduate or technician apprentice ⁶⁷[technician (vocational) apprentice] undergoing apprenticeship training shall have the following obligations namely:
 - (a) to learn his subject field in engineering or technology ⁶⁸[or vocational course] conscientiously and diligently at his place of training;
 - (b) to attend the practical and instructional classes regularly;
 - (c) to carry out all lawful orders of his employers and superiors in the establishment;
 - (d) to carry out his obligations under the contract of apprenticeship which shall include the maintenance of such records of his work as may be prescribed.

13. Payment to apprentices

- (1) The employer shall pay to every apprentices during the period of apprenticeship training such stipend at a rate not less than the ⁶⁹[prescribed minimum, rate, or the rate which was being paid by the employer on 1st January, 1970 to the category of apprentices under which such apprentice falls, whichever is higher] as may be specified in the contract of apprenticeship and the stipend so specified shall be paid at such intervals and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.
- (2) ⁷⁰[An apprentice shall not be paid by his employer on the basis of piece work nor shall he be required to take part in any output bonus or other incentive scheme.]

Maharashtra Amendment

In section 13 of the principal Act, after the existing sub-section (1), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:

- (1A) ⁷¹[The minimum rate of stipend per month payable to trade apprentices who do training for eight hours per day shall be as follows, namely:
 - (a) During the first year of training . . . Seventy per cent. of minimum wages of semi-skilled workers notified by the State.

- (b) During the second year of training . . . Eighty per cent. of minimum wages of semi-skilled workers notified by the State.
 - (c) During the third year of training . . . Ninety per cent. of minimum wages of semiskilled workers notified by the State.
- (1B) The trade apprentices who do training for minimum four hours per day, the rate of stipend per month shall be fifty per cent. of the rates mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1A), respectively:

Provided that, in the case where the minimum rate of wage for a trade is not notified by the State, then the maximum of minimum wages of the Scheduled Employment notified by the State for semi-skilled workers shall be taken into account for paying the stipend in respect of that trade:

Provided further that, in the case of trade apprentices referred to in clause (a) of section 6 of the Act, the period of training already undergone by them in a school or other institution recognised by the State Council, shall be taken into account for the purpose of determining the rate of stipend payable.]

14. Health, safety and welfare of apprentices

Where any apprentices are undergoing training in a factory, the provisions of Chapters III, IV and V of the Factories Act, 1948, shall apply in relation to the health, safety and welfare of the apprentices as if they were workers within the meaning of that Act and when any apprentices are undergoing training in a mine, that provisions of Chapter V of the Mines Act, 1952, shall apply in relation to the health and safety of the apprentices as if they were persons employed in the mine.

15. Hours of work, overtime, leave and holidays

- (1) ⁷²[The weekly and daily hours of work of an apprentice while undergoing practical training in a workplace shall be as determined by the employer subject to the compliance with the training duration, if prescribed.]
- (2) No apprentice shall be required or allowed to work overtime except with the approval of the Apprenticeship Adviser who shall not grant such approval unless he is satisfied that such overtime is in the interest of the training of the apprentice or in the public interest.
- (3) ⁷³[An apprentice shall be entitled to such leave and holidays as are observed in the establishment in which he is undergoing training.]

16. Employer's liability for compensation for injury

If personal injury is caused to an apprentice, by accident arising out of and in the course of his training as an apprentice, his employer shall be liable to pay compensation which shall be determined and paid, so far as may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, subject to the modifications specified in the Schedule.

17. Conduct and discipline

In all matters of conduct and discipline, the apprentice shall be governed by the rules and regulations ⁷⁴[applicable to employees of the corresponding category] in the establishment in which the apprentice is undergoing training.

18. Apprentices are trainees and not workers

Save as otherwise provided in this Act,

- (a) every apprentice undergoing apprenticeship training in a designated trade in an establishment shall be trainee and not a worker; and
- (b) the provisions of any law with respect to labour shall not apply to or in relation to such apprentice.

19. Records and returns

- (1) Every employer shall maintain records of the progress of training of each apprentice undergoing apprenticeship training in his establishment in such form as may be prescribed.
- (2) ⁷⁵[Until a portal-site is developed by the Central Government, every employer shall furnish such information and return in such form as may be prescribed, to such authorities at such intervals as may be prescribed.
- (3) Every employer shall also give trade-wise requirement and engagement of apprentices in respect of apprenticeship training on portal-site developed by the Central Government in this regard]

20. Settlement of disputes

- (1) Any disagreement or dispute between an employer and an apprentice arising out of the contract to apprenticeship shall be referred to the Apprenticeship Adviser for decisions.
- (2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Apprenticeship Adviser under subsection (1) may, within thirty days from the date of communication to him of such decision, prefer an appeal against the decision to the Apprenticeship Council and such appeal shall be heard and determined by a committee of that Council appointed for the purpose.
- (3) The decision of the Committee under subsection (2) and subject only to such decision, the decision of the Apprenticeship Adviser under subsection (1) shall be final.

21. Holding of test and grant of certificate and conclusion of training

- (1) ⁷⁶[Every trade apprentice who has completed the period of training may appear for a test to be conducted by the National Council or any other agency authorised by the Central Government to determine his proficiency in the designated trade in which he has undergone apprenticeship training.].
- (2) Every ⁷⁷[trade apprentice] who passes the test referred to in sub-section (1) shall be granted a certificate of proficiency in the trade by the National Council ⁷⁸[or by the other agency authorised by the Central Government
- (3) ⁷⁹[The progress in apprenticeship training of every graduate or technician apprentice, ⁸⁰[technician (vocational) apprentice] shall be assessed by the employer from time to time.]

- (4) ⁸¹[Every graduate or technician apprentice or technician (vocational) apprentice who completes his apprenticeship training to the satisfaction of the concerned Regional Board, shall be granted a certificate of proficiency by that Board.]

Maharashtra Amendment

In section 21 of the principal Act, (i) after the existing sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:

- (1A) ⁸²[For apprentices successfully completed the training period in the trade designated by the State Apprenticeship Council (other than the trade designated and prescribed by the Central Government), may appear for a test to be conducted by the State Council of Vocational Training or any other agency authorised by the State Government to determine his proficiency in the trade designated by the State Apprenticeship Council in which he has undergone apprenticeship training.

(ii) after the existing sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:

- (2A) Every apprentice, who passes the test referred to in subsection (1A) shall be granted a certificate of proficiency in the trade by the State Council of Vocational Training or by the other agency authorised by the State Government.]

22. Offer and acceptance of employment

- (1) ⁸³[Every employer shall formulate its own policy for recruiting any apprentice who has completed the period of apprenticeship training in his establishment]
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), where there is a condition in a contract of apprenticeship that the apprentice shall, after the successful completion of the apprenticeship training, serve the employer, the employer shall, on such completion, be bound to offer suitable employment to the apprentice, and the apprentice shall be bound to serve the employer in that capacity for such period and on such remuneration as may be specified in the contract.

Provided that where such period of remuneration is not, in the opinion of the Apprenticeship Adviser, reasonable, he may revise such period or remuneration so as to make it reasonable, and the period or remuneration so revised shall be deemed to the period of remuneration agreed to between the apprentice and the employer.
